3. Justification in the curriculum, relation to other subjects and to the profession

Current philosophy on such important issues as economic policy, discrimination against women, problems of multicultural societies, the alienation of consumerism, the problem of universal ethical principles in a global world, nationalism, extreme poverty in the world, or the ways of understanding today's art are capitals in today's culture.

This subject helps the student to have a view of current philosophy, that will be very useful for subjects such as History of the Contemporary World, Memory, History and Present Time, Gender, Cultural Diversity and Human Rights, Contemporary Art and Literature in the contemporary world. At the same time these subjects will provide the social, political, ethical, anthropological and artistic framework for this subject.
