2. Pre-Requisites

Passing criminal Law I and II courses

3. Justification in the curriculum, relation to other subjects and to the profession

Nowadays, Corporate Criminal Liability is one of the most important subjects from a practical point of view. In our society, the social harmfulness of economic crimes has been gradually increasing. If a few decades ago the prosecution of white-collar crimes was an exception, today it is a reality, as can be seen by reading any media.

The subject is also of unquestionable educational interest. It is said that economic or business criminal law is the testing ground of a criminal law that has been constructed with violent crimes and crimes committed by the marginalized social classes in mind. For this reason, the study of this subject allows to deepen the knowledge acquired in Criminal Law I and, especially, in Criminal Law II, where basic patrimonial crimes are studied in greater depth, such as fraud or misappropriation or economic corruption.

8. Evaluation criteria and Grading System
Evaluation System	Continuous assessment	Non- continuous evaluation*	Description
Assessment of active participation	20.00%	0.00%	Attending classes is highly recommended.
Theoretical papers assessment	20.00%	10 00%	To prepare a theoretical paper about a topic from the general or special part of the subject.
Oral presentations assessment	60.00%	1100 00%	Students will pretend to be lawyers presenting an issue about the programme, either to potential clients or to a court.
Total:	100.00%	100.00%

According to art. 4 of the UCLM Student Evaluation Regulations, it must be provided to students who cannot regularly attend face-to-face training activities the passing of the subject, having the right (art. 12.2) to be globally graded, in 2 annual calls per subject, an ordinary and an extraordinary one (evaluating 100% of the competences).

Evaluation criteria for the final exam:

Continuous assessment:

It will be valued that the student knows the elements of the criminal figures that have been studied and the theories of the general part applicable to the case. Likewise, great importance is given to the form of exposition that has to be done on the basis of slides (power point or similar). In the presentations, the clarity of the exposition and the mastery of the subject will be especially valued.

Students who have not passed the continuous evaluation or who have not been able to attend class may take a final test (100%) consisting of an oral exam in which the topics of the general and special part of the program of the subject will be evaluated.

Non-continuous evaluation:

It will be assessed that the student knows the elements of the criminal figures that have been studied and the theories of the general part applicable to the case.

Students who have not been able to attend class may take a final test (100%) consisting of an oral exam about the topics of the general and special part of the program of the subject.
