2. Pre-Requisites

There are not previous requirements.

3. Justification in the curriculum, relation to other subjects and to the profession

The subject provides a synthetic and contextualized knowledge of Medieval History, between the fourth and the fifteenth centuries. It will be focused on the main characteristics that defined the politics, society, economy and culture of Europe and the Mediterranean. Two basic purposes are sought: firstly, more specific, to ensure that students understand some of the historical foundations of our present world; secondly, more general, to help that these students get a solid general and multidisciplinary training in the field of Humanities and Social Sciences.

4. Degree competences achieved in this courseCourse competences
