According to art. 4 of the UCLM Student Evaluation Regulations, it must be provided to students who cannot regularly attend face-to-face training activities the passing of the subject, having the right (art. 12.2) to be globally graded, in 2 annual calls per subject, an ordinary and an extraordinary one (evaluating 100% of the competences).

Evaluation criteria for the final exam:

Continuous assessment:

- Progress tests: Various assessable activities will be carried out throughout the course. The grades obtained from these activities will represent 35% of the student's grade as long as they improve their overall final grade.
- Final test: The final test will consist of the following parts:
 - I. Written test (40%): it will include reading comprehension, writing, use of English (grammar and vocabulary) and listening comprehension (in which a dictation may be performed);
 - II. Oral test (40%): composed of speaking production and speaking interaction;
 - III. Didactics of the English language (20%): it will consist of various questions about the didactic content taught during the course.
 - IV. Students must demonstrate some knowledge in didactics that will be evaluated, (1) either through continuous evaluation through didactic exploitation activities within the classroom throughout the course, or (2) either through a section within the final written test.
 - V. With regard to the oral test, the students who attend class will have the possibility of being evaluated continuously in the classroom. In the case of not passing the continuous evaluations, they must take the oral part in the corresponding call for the final test.
 - VI. To pass the course, students must pass all parts or at least obtain a 4 out of 10 to make an average between the parts, as long as the final grade obtained after taking the average is equal to or above 5.
 - VII. To do the final oral exam, students must obtain at least a grade of 4 in the final written exam.
 - VIII. If the student fails the written test, the final grade will be the one obtained in this test. If the student passes the written test but fails the oral one, the final grade will be 4 by default.
 - IX. No marks will be saved beyond the ordinary and extraordinary calls of the current year.

X. In case of plagiarism, students will fail the subject (article 9 of the REE).

Where appropriate, any necessary modification or adaptation in the teaching guides as a consequence of any change in the teaching or evaluation model derived from the evolution of the pandemic will be documented through an addendum.

Non-continuous evaluation:

The final test will consist of the following parts:

I. Written test (40%): it will include reading comprehension, writing, use of English (grammar and vocabulary) and listening comprehension (in which a dictation may be performed);

II. Oral test (40%): composed of speaking production and speaking interaction;

III. Didactics of the English language (20%): it will consist of various questions about the didactic content taught during the course.

IV. To pass the course, students must pass all parts or at least obtain a 4 out of 10 to make an average between the parts, as long as the final grade obtained after taking the average is equal to or above 5.

V. To do the final oral exam, students must obtain at least a grade of 4 in the written part of the final exam.

VI. If the student fails the written test, the final grade will be the one obtained in this test. If the student passes the written test but fails the oral one, the final grade will be 4 by default.

VII. No marks will be saved beyond the resit and second resit calls of the current academic year.

VIII. In case of plagiarism, students will fail the subject (article 9 of the REE).

Where appropriate, any necessary modification or adaptation in the teaching guides as a consequence of any change in the teaching or evaluation model derived from the evolution of the pandemic will be documented through an addendum.

Specifications for the resit/retake exam:

The same criteria will be followed in the resit exam.

Where appropriate, any necessary modification or adaptation in the teaching guides as a consequence of any change in the teaching or evaluation model derived from the evolution of the pandemic will be documented through an addendum.

Specifications for the second resit / retake exam:

The same criteria will be followed in the second resit exam.

No marks will be saved beyond the ordinary and extraordinary calls of the current year.

Where appropriate, any necessary modification or adaptation in the teaching guides as a consequence of any change in the teaching or evaluation model derived from the evolution of the pandemic will be documented through an addendum.
