2. Pre-Requisites

It is advisable to have a basic knowledge of History and Classical Culture

3. Justification in the curriculum, relation to other subjects and to the profession

Roman Law is a basic subject, included in the table of subjects considered as "Legal and Economic Basic Subjects", along with other subjects such as History of Law, Theory of Law and Economics, which is taught in the first semester of the first year of the Degree in Law and has 6 ECTS credits.

As the UCLM Curriculum for the Degree in Law is included in the European convergence process, what better way can there be to converge in the training of the future jurist that to study the only law common to all of Europe: the Roman Law, which is the origin of all the Private Law, specially Civil Law.

All Modern legal systems have been formed from the conceptions and formulations of the Roman legal system, which shows the importance of its study for the formation of the modern jurist.

8. Evaluation criteria and Grading System
Evaluation System	Continuous assessment	Non-continuous evaluation*	Description
Assessment of problem solving and/or case studies	30.00%	0.00%	During the semester, various text comments, practical cases and / or questionnaires will be carried out individually or in groups, several of them being evaluated -as indicated in the schedule that will be published at the beginning of the semester in MOODLE. This activity is NON-COMPULSORY and RECOVERABLE, so that those students who do not perform it or obtain in each one of them a grade lower than 4 will be able to do the day of the Final Test (without the aid of any type of support material) some questions regarding the subject matter of the aforementioned activity.
Final test	70.00%	100.00%	Students will take a written exam that will consist of 7 questions; the student must obtain a grade of 4/10 in this exam to be able to add the rest of the elements of the evaluation to their final grade.
Total:	100.00%	100.00%

According to art. 4 of the UCLM Student Evaluation Regulations, it must be provided to students who cannot regularly attend face-to-face training activities the passing of the subject, having the right (art. 12.2) to be globally graded, in 2 annual calls per subject, an ordinary and an extraordinary one (evaluating 100% of the competences).

Evaluation criteria for the final exam:

Continuous assessment:

The active participation in classes, as well as the active and enriching intervention in the different forums created in relation to the subject, without prejudice to the aforementioned, will be valued by the teacher, provided that the grade in the final test is greater than 4/10 .

In any case, to pass the subject it will be necessary to obtain a grade equal to or greater than 5 once the different elements of the evaluation that compose it have been computed.

Non-continuous evaluation:
